

Name: _____ Period: _____ Date: _____

EVALUATION: A Pyramid for the Pharaoh

	Exemplary 38 Points	Accomplished 34 Points	Developing 30 Points	Points
Research 40 Points	You showed great skill in applying the research you conducted to make an original proposal. You provided detailed reasons for each of your decisions, and your decisions showed resourcefulness and depth. Your notes were organized and used the proper Cornell note style. Your worksheet also showed great attention to detail.	Your research was solid and evident in its proposal to the pharaoh. Each decision was based on facts about ancient Egypt. Greater detail and more creative thinking would have improved your proposal. You did use Cornell note style for the most part and your worksheet was complete.	Good start! You conducted research and made a proposal to the pharaoh. You did need to support your ideas with more facts and details on Egypt and its culture. With practice you will learn to focus your research on the assigned task. You partially completed your notes Cornell note style and your worksheet was not complete.
Collaboration 20 Points	You were extremely effective when working with your team. You listened to other's ideas, made suggestions and remained focus, on-task and positive.	You have what it takes to be a part of a great team. Try to motivate and support every member to get full participation! You also need to try to stay on task more during independent work time.	Team skills develop with practice. You need to take responsibility for listening to and contributing ideas. On-task behavior needs more development.
Presentation 40 Points	Your presentation was highly detailed and very creative. Your delivery was clear and your Keynote presentation included meaningful visuals, proper font size and color.	You have stated your ideas and provided examples to illustrate your plan. A creative Keynote presentation would have made your project more meaningful.	Rehearsing ahead of time would have helped the organization and delivery of your presentation. Practice speaking clearly and add more content and visuals to your Keynote.

Comments: _____ Final Grade: _____